Joshua Prince
University of California, Davis
Computer Science and Engineering, Class of 2019
jtprince@ucdavis.edu

▪ Education

Current: University of California, Davis
                Pursuing Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and Engineering
                Anticipated Graduation: June 2019
                Current GPA: 3.89

Past: Bella Vista High School
                Graduated May 2015, Class Valedictorian
                GPA: 4.45 weighted, 4.0 unweighted

▪ Technical Experience

U.C. Davis: Currently enrolled in lower and upper division courses

Proficient in: C, C++, and Java programming languages
                UNIX Command-Line; run a home-based Linux server Diagnosis and repair of common software problems in Windows, Mac OS, and Linux; have reimaged and reinstalled complete operating systems numerous times
                Operation of home network involving port-forwarding, troubleshooting, wi-fi and ethernet mapping, and configuring web server Hardware upgrades including additional RAM, and installing additional hard drives and various peripherals.

▪ Activities

- "HackDavis" 2016: Created a Pebble Time Smartwatch app, "Work It," during an uninterrupted 24hour period
- UC Davis Game Development and Arts Club
- Converted laptop and repurposed as a web, SQL, and file server
- Currently learning web development for personal website and future use
- Volunteer and paid tutor in high school physics and mathematics

▪ Awards

- Dean's Honor List, UC Davis; Fall 2015, Winter 2016, and Spring 2016
- Seward & Clara Patterson Scholarship, UC Davis; 2016
- National Latino Peace Officers' Association Scholarship, Sacramento County; 2015
- Russ Monroe Compassionate Service Award; 2015
- Bella Vista High School Class Valedictorian; 2015
- BVHS Math Department Award; in both 2014 and 2015
- BVHS Science Department Award; 2014
- Science Olympiad 2014: Personal 3rd place at regional, 5th place at statewide competition